The Board of Education

The Board of Education has bettered the life of the students of Leetonia High School in many ways. They have had built a cafeteria, remodeled the Home Economics Room and had installed five Youngstown kitchen units. Also movable bleachers have been ordered for the gymnasium for use during basketball games. To the Board our sincerest appreciation goes for making our years in school more and more enjoyable.

Superintendent

Mr. Rummel, our new superintendent, has in many ways made us feel fortunate. He is always ready to help anyone, whether it be student, teacher, or an average citizen. We offer our gratitude for all he has done.

Principal

In the principal's office we see a familiar face . . . Mr. Allison's. As we came to know him better, we found him ready to help us in every possible way. His helpfulness and kindness will be remembered long.

Diary of 1950-51

Tuesday, September 5, 1950 began another school year at Leetonia High School when many eager students again trudged up the steps and entered the empty building. That first half-day of school recorded feelings of both joy and sorrow to the seniors; joy because many old friends were back together again, and sorrow because they realized that every passing day brought them nearer the end of their seemingly endless school career. They now, at last, were nearing their goal—graduation—which meant sadness because all too soon classmates would be parted.

The first class meetings of the term were held on Thursday, September 14, when the classes chose their officers to guide them in the coming year. Bernard Smith was re-elected president of our senior class, Esther Stecker was chosen to serve as vice president, Dorothy Altomare was elected secretary, and the office of treasurer was to be filled by Martha McCormick.

The vacation days of the term began Friday, September 15, 1950 when we were dismissed from school to attend the annual county fair. Also on this Friday we opened our football season only to get off to an unsuccessful start by being defeated at East Palestine. The next Friday, Boardman handed us our second defeat of season, but our squad, not disheartened by the first two setbacks, came back the next Friday, September 29, to defeat McDonald.

The first assembly of the year, a marionette show, was enjoyed and appreciated by all on October 5. Then came our second class meeting of the year, October 9, when we elected David Sweeley to serve as editor of our annual. Also that week came the always dreaded six-weeks tests. We all survived this ordeal and were able to prove the strength of our upcoming football team Friday, October 13, by cheering them on to victory over Columbiana.

Friday, October 20, the dignified seniors, dressed in their best clothes, paraded through the halls while waiting patiently to have their senior pictures taken. Also the same date we downed Poland in another of our victorious football games.

Group pictures of the various organizations and classes in the school were taken Monday, October 23. The same day Juniors, Seniors, and the faculty were chest X-ray patients of the Columbiana County Health Association.

Tuesday, October 24, was the date of election of student council officers. Then came more vacation time when we were dismissed from school for the annual teachers meeting in Cleveland. The same weekend Lisbon blacked out our high hopes of another victory on the football field by defeating our team in a very good ball game.

The annual student council installation assembly was held the morning of October 21. Three senior representatives on the council were installed as officers. Sam Tingle was elected president, Joan Jackson filled the post of secretary, and Dorothy Altomare was installed as treasurer of the organization.

At our homecoming football game November 3, we defeated Sebring in a downpour of rain. The next event in our full schedule came the next week when we enjoyed a commercial assembly about the lives and customs of the people in Peru. Then on Friday, November 10, we concluded our football season by defeating Springfield Township. The next week, November 15, we enjoyed a typing demonstration assembly.

The first All-High dance of the year was held Friday, November 17, and everyone present had a very good time. The next big event of the term came the next week when the Junior Class presented their class play to the public, Tuesday, November 21. Wednesday, November 22, the Freshman Class sponsored the annual Thanksgiving assembly. We didn't return to classes the next week following Thanksgiving vacation because of a very heavy snow. Most of the students during the extra week of vacation, could be found shoveling snow, catching up on extra, much needed sleep, or just loafing.

We opened our basketball season by defeating Salineville in a close game December 8. Then Tuesday, December 12, we tested our mental ability by taking California mental examinations. The same day we held the annual football recognition assembly. Still the same day, we defeated Beloit here in a basketball classic. Lisbon ended our winning streak by handing us a defeat on Friday, December 15. We came back to overpower New Waterford, however, the next Tuesday.

The annual Christmas assembly was presented on Wednesday, December 20, 1950 by the music department. The same evening, the Y-Teens held their annual Snowball Frolic in the gymnasium, with the girls in gay formals and boys in their best suits.

Our student body returned to the "old grind" again January 2, 1951 following Christmas vacation, all looking wide-awake and ready to start the new year off right. The next evening, January 3, Columbiana handed our team a setback which was repeated again January 9, 1951 when Sebring defeated us on our own court. Again unable to get back in the winning line, our team dropped another game to Berlin Center January 12, 1951. Friday, January 19, ended the first semester of school on which date we defeated East Fairfield in a close game. The next evening, Saturday, January 20, we won from Salineville for the second time this season. We suffered another setback Tuesday, January 30, when we met East Palestine and were defeated by their strong team. The next day, Wednesday, January 21, we were dismissed early from school and added Thursday and Friday, February 1 and February 2 to our list of vacation days because of bad weather conditions.

We met Fairfield again Tuesday, February 6, and we were defeated by a very small margin. The official opening inspection of the school cafeteria was Wednesday, February 7, with many people attending it. We chalked up another day of unexpected vacation from school when the weather cancelled school Thursday, February 8. Beloit added another upset to our basketball season schedule when they defeated us Friday, February 9. Seven of our senior students took county scholarship tests in Lisbon on the morning of Saturday, February 10. The Hi-Y and Y-Teen organizations sponsored a Valentine's Dance the same evening in the gymnasium.

Lisbon defeated our team in a close game Tuesday, February 13, 1951. The next evening, Wednesday, February 14, a group of selected musicians from our high school band attended the first of a series of county band clinics. The student body enjoyed a very entertaining assembly Friday morning, February 16, consisting of a variety show presented by the Fitzgralds. The same evening Carrollton defeated our basketball quintet by a large margin. On Tuesday, February 20, the annual athletic banquet was held with Mr. Dyke Beede as the speaker. We concluded our not-too-successful season of basketball frolic at Louisville when we were defeated by their powerful squad, Friday, February 23.

Again Wednesday, February 28, the dreaded six-weeks tests were scheduled. We all survived this ordeal and got our report cards the following Friday, March 9. Also on March 9, the Freshmen and Seniors enjoyed a field trip to the Industrial Exposition in Youngstown which took up a good part of their day. The same evening the Elementary grades under the direction of Mrs. Charles Millar, presented an entertaining minstrel show. Several musicians from our band attended the second in a series of county band clinics at Salem on Wednesday evening, March 21.

The Y-Teens held their annual Easter Breakfast at the Lutheran Church on Thursday morning, March 22. The Easter Assembly was presented to the student body the same afternoon by the Y-Teen group. The next day, the Friday before Easter, March 23, was a day of vacation for the students. The district musical contest was held at East Liverpool, March 31, with many of our talented musicians participating.

The P. T. A. sponsored a square dance for us on Monday evening, April 2 which was greatly enjoyed by all. The music department, under the direction of Mr. Jenkins, presented a combined vocal and instrumental concert at the high school the evening of Friday, April 13. The following Friday several students attended an opera in Cleveland. The same evening, April 20, the Y-Teens were hostesses to Lisbon and New Waterford for the annual district Y-Teen Spring Frolic Formal Dance.

During this time many seniors were making almost daily evening trips to the high school to practice for their annual class play. After weeks of struggling and tiring rehearsals, the play was presented to the public on Friday evening, April 27.

The Junior Class treated the seniors to a beautiful and colorful Junior-Senior Prom on Saturday evening, May 5, 1951. A gay evening was spent by everyone who attended the annual affair.

All the seniors appeared in their best clothes on May 18, for this was indeed a memorable class day to them. As they marched up the graduation aisle they realized that every step brought them nearer the end of twelve hard years of work. Baccalaureate was held in the gymnasium Sunday, May 20, 1951.

On Tuesday evening, May 22, 1951, these senior students appeared at the high school ready for whatever might come. Yes, this was a long awaited moment for our class of 1951, for this was the last time we would make our appearance here as students. This—our graduation—was a very precious moment to us.

Following the ceremony of graduation, we were on our own, and prepared to face the future, ready for what it had in store for us.

Senior Will — Class of 1951

We the Senior Class of 1951 being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make public and declare this document to be our last will and testimony, revoking all others previously made.

To the faculty we leave peace and quiet.

To the Juniors we leave our cheery dispositions.

To the Sophomores we leave some ability to get along with the teachers.

To the Freshmen we leave our intelligence.

Joan Jackson leaves to live in Columbiana.

Nancy Stelts leaves her ability to blame chemistry explosions on someone else.

Bob Sneddon leaves in his little red convertible.

Martha McCormick leaves her red hair to go with Norma Bates' temper.

Elvera Gabriel leaves her giggles to Iva Roller.

Tony Milcetich leaves his height to Ed Jefferies.

Ida Mae Lipp leaves her pencils to Coach Gibson.

Darlene Mason leaves her smile to Mrs. Biehler.

Joe Ferry leaves the teachers with no more worries.

Clem Tortora leaves his football ability to Richard Gabriel.

Roy Davis will leave too and because of his absence, peace and quiet will reign over the school.

Evelyn Mathey wills her quiet like manners to Mary Gibson.

Esther Stecker leaves her A's in American Problems to the first person lucky enough to grab them.

Jerry Ferry wills his ability to make speeches in American Problems class to the Juniors.

James Campbell leaves his shyness to Jackie Rose.

Jack Altomare wills his ability to write his own excuses to Dicky Gibson.

Rebecca Dicken leaves her blonde hair to Rheta Toland.

Clyde Blose leaves but with a diploma.

Janet Stratton leaves to make a home for Kenny.

Beverly Ashman leaves her gum to anyone who can crack it.

Charles Hedl leaves a little peace and quiet in 5th period study hall.

Jean Cushing leaves to recuperate from a year of sitting near Davis and Citino in home room.

George Carlisle leaves for ah-er-ah, well it's hard to tell the way he gets around.

Glenn Hinten leaves his jokes to anyone who can stand them.

Jerry Skinner leaves her good standards with the teachers, to her sister Patty, who certainly can use it.

Kenny Warner leaves with memories of hard work and less knowledge.

Bernard Smith leaves his good looks to anyone who needs them.

Harold Bell leaves legally for the first time.

James Rice leaves his Plymouth to anyone who needs it. He is going to buy a new Ford.

Senior Will — Class of 1951

Cecilia Halverstadt leaves to go to college.

Don Campbell leaves, but with much coaxing.

Averill Longbottom, whose life will take that other than a stenographer, wills her shorthand ability to Dorothy Helman.

Joanne Taylor leaves to raise some little Taylors.

Charles Carter leaves to play football at Vassar.

Valliase McFarland leaves to work in a restaurant.

Sam Tingle leaves his locker and mirror to the Junior girls on one condition that they don't charge over a nickle for rental. All profits must go to the Tingsonian Institute to take care of him in years to come.

Marie Mix leaves her height and build to Mitzi Gilmore and the office work to anyone who wants it.

Fredia Mabry leaves her southern accent to any yankee that can use it as well as she.

Mary Holisky leaves her quietness to Carol Vespasian.

Vincent Citino leaves his physique to Bobby Burk.

Dorothy Roessler leaves her height to Margaret Kozjan.

Joann Holloway leaves, maybe to go back to Greenford, she's homesick.

Betty Shimer leaves her smart jerseys to some lucky junior.

Shirley Rance leaves her singing ability to any little Freshman who can make good use of it.

Dorothy Altomare leaves her personality to Janice Holloway.

David Sweeley wills Joe Guido his wonderous ways with the girls.

Donna Mango leaves her promptness to Josephine Rance.

To our sponsor, Mr. Hoskins, we leave many apologies for causing so many worries and gray hairs. We're really very sorry and we'll never do it to him again.

The above document was at the same time declared by them to be their Last Will and Testament; and we are at the same request signing our names here unto as witnesses.

Class Prophecy

It was a chilly October Friday night and I was on my way to my parent's home where I was visiting. I had come home to see Leetonia's Wonder Football Team that was coached by Kenny Warner, a classmate of mine. The Warner coached eleven were undefeatable. Tonight they had been victorious again and everyone from Leetonia was happy although the other town was quite sad. This was my first time in Leetonia since I had graduated, over ten years ago. Everyone in town was a stranger to me except one familiar face. It was Dorothy Altomare, my old schoolmate. Dorothy told me she was now instructing high school girls on how to be good cheerleaders. Dorothy was head cheerleader in our senior year and a very good one I may add. I asked her if she ever saw or heard from any of the old gang, and she said,

"Practically everyone's left Leetonia to do better but I do hear from a few of them."

Then she went on to tell me that Jean Cushing writes to her and that Jean is a librarian in the Congressional Library in Washington, D. C.

She also hears from Elvera Gabriel who is a model in New York City.

Beverly Ashman writes to her once in awhile and she's a secretary in Cleveland.

Then she told me:

"Eugene Lippiatt owns a garage in Washingtonville and has Harold Bell and Don Campbell working for him."

She went on to tell me that Darlene Mason is married to an oil tycoon and they live in Texas.

That was just about all she knew so I said goodbye to her and hurried home. After I got home I went straight to bed. I had it on my mind about my classmates and so as sleep came to me, dreams came also, and in my dreams I saw all my old friends again.

It seems I was going into a church and to my amazement the minister was Charles Carter, who is following in his older brother's footsteps. I listened to his wonderful sermon and then shook hands with him and left the church. Outside the church was a big yellow convertible and since this was a dream, I assumed it was mine. I got in it and drove down the street. The car began to make a chugging noise and as I looked at the gas gage I knew why. I was in luck though for right beside me was a huge filling station. A man came out to give me some gas and I recognized him immediately to be "Tony" Milcetich. He told me that he owned the filling station and since I was his old classmate he would give me gas free of charge. Another man came over to me and asked if I'd like my car washed and waxed. I was too surprised to answer for the man was "Clemmie" Tortora. I told him I didn't have time to have my car washed, and then I asked him where his old buddies, Roy Davis and Eddie Donnelly were.

"Roy is teaching "Advanced Trigonometry" in Harvard University. Eddie is a railroad foreman for the Pennsylvania Railroad," he told me. I couldn't imagine Roy teaching "Trig" and I wondered if maybe his pupils weren't teaching him. Now, I understood too, why they've been having so much trouble with the trains since Eddie is a foreman.

I left the filling station and drove down the main street of the town. I decided to park my car and shop awhile. I was trying to get into a rather small parking space and having quite a bit of trouble. I was backing up when bang! I backed into a truck. It seemed strange but my car was not damaged a bit and the truck was practically ruined. This could happen only in a dream, of course. The truck driver got out of his truck and angrily started towards my car. He was an awfully big fellow and as he came nearer, I just sat and shook.

"What's the idea of backing into my——" That was as far as he got because I said,

Class Prophecy

"Bob Sneddon! Don't you remember me?"

He was quiet for awhile and then he recognized me. He told me not to worry about the damage done to his truck and then he directed me into the parking space. I asked him if he ever saw any of our old schoolmates and he said:

"Glenn Hinten styles women's dresses and evening gowns and women swear by his fashions."

Also he said:

"Averill Longbottom got married and is living in Washingtonville," but this was all he knew.

I left him and started walking down the street. My next stop was a large department store. The name of the store was "Smiths" and as I entered the first person I saw was Bernard Smith.

"Don't tell me you work here?" I asked.

"No, I don't, I own the store. Do you like it?"

"It's grand! Really grand!" I said.

I thought maybe Bernard would have heard something from our classmates so I asked him.

"Esther Stecker is teaching at Ohio State University and Jim Campbell teaches there, too. Let's see, Dorothy Roessler sells jewelry here in my store and Nancy Stelts is head of the dress department. Other than that I couldn't tell you."

I walked to the dress department and talked to Nancy. Her wonderful sales ability persuaded me to buy two dresses while I was there.

I left the store then and continued my walk down the street. As I walked I came to an Opera House. In bright lights it said,

"Opera, Aida, Starring Shirley Rance and Martha McCormick."

I just had to see my old friends so I went to the ticket window and asked for a ticket. Who was selling tickets but Jerry Skinner! We talked for awhile and then I went inside. Shirley and Martha were singing as I entered and everyone was "oh-ing" and "ah-ing." When the opera was over, I went backstage and talked to them. They were awfully surprised to see me. We talked about old times and they told me that Valliase McFarland is married and so is Joann Holloway. They also knew that Fredia Mabry was a private secretary to the millionaire, Henry J. Ford, Jr., and Marie Mix is a nurse, and Evelyn Mathey a school teacher in Leetonia. It was growing late though, so I left.

I passed another building as I walked and a sign out front read,

"Lecturer for today, Miss Cecilia Halverstadt. Topic, 'America's Main Problems'."

I remembered Cecilia had been an interesting speaker and I was sorry I didn't have time to go in and listen to her.

My stomach told me I was hungry so when I saw an Isaly Store I went in for a soda. There behind the counter was Eddie Bell. He told me he was now manager of the Isaly Chain Stores and he had lots of people working for him. I drank my soda and was about to leave when Donna Mango walked in. She asked me if I was going to Joan Jackson's piano concert at Carnegie Hall. I said I'd like to go and so after Donna bought an ice cream cone, we left together.

The concert hall was very large and every seat was filled with ritzy looking people. Everyone became silent as Joan walked towards the piano. She sat down and began to play, but there was no music in front of her. She played several hours without ever once looking at a sheet of music. When she finished the audience applauded loudly and she had to play encore after encore. I told Donna I couldn't stay long enough to see Joan, but for her to say "hello" for me.

I continued my walk down what seemed an endless street. I heard people cheering in the distance and I stopped and asked someone what was going on. They told me it was a professional football game. I hurried to see it. I was so surprised to see Vinny Citino, Jerry Ferry, Sammy Tingle and Jack Altomare playing on the team. I had seen them play football in high school but I didn't know they were professionals. Then a player was hurt and the coach ran out to him and motioned for the water boy. I thought I recognized the water boy. Of course I did, it was Joe Ferry. Someone told me that Joe had been too small to play professional football so he was the team's water boy. I watched the game for awhile but the old Leetonia players were running all over the other team and the game was very one sided.

I was tired of walking so I went back to my car and began to drive. I passed a big factory and a large sign read,

"Hedl and Rice Manufacturers." I knew that that must be the Charles Hedl and Jimmy Rice I went to school with.

As I drove on I passed a beautiful farm with white fence around it. There were cows in the pasture and in front of the farm house there was a large pond with ducks swimming in it. The name on the mailbox read, Ross Good. There was another classmate of mine and he too was doing good for himself.

I came to another town and parked my car, this time in a parking lot where there was lots of room. A man came over to my car and I paid him. You can imagine how surprised I was to see that the man was George Carlisle. George told me he owned the parking lot and all the big business men parked their cars there. He pointed to a Cadillac and then said:

"You remember David Sweeley?"

I said that I did.

"Well, that's his car. He's doing swell in his business. He's a draftsman, I guess."

"By the looks of that car, David must be doing well!"

I left the parking lot and began walking down the main street. I bumped into a woman carrying groceries and knocked them everywhere. I helped her pick them up and as I handed them to her I recognized her to be Ida Mae Lipp. Only Ida told me it wasn't Lipp any more, it was Mrs. Jim Green. Ida insisted I walk home with her and so I did. As we walked she told me that Mary Holisky is a secretary for Ida's husband, Jim. She also said that Rebecca Dicken lives on a big dairy farm on the outskirts of town. She said that Betty Shimer wrote to her and she's married. By that time we were at Ida's home and I asked her who her neighbors were.

"Janet Stratton and her husband Kenny Girard live there," Ida said.

Then we started into Ida's house. The steps were very high up to the porch and I kept stepping and stepping but I couldn't get up on the step. I heard someone say,

"Joanne!"

I looked around and there was mother. I was in my bedroom and trying to step up on my window sill. I told mother my dream and I also said I intended to see all my classmates again before the year was over. I was really curious now to see what they were all doing.

Class Song

We'll keep the mem-o-ries
Of things we've done in dear Lee-to-nia High,
The humorous mem-o-ries
Of happy days gone by.
We leave to face the world,
And all the things it has to off-er us,
We hate to leave you all,
But it's the best for us.

And now that grad-u-a-tion time is here at last,
We now are re-al-i-zing "that it came too fast."

We'll do our very best,
The ma-ny things that we were taught to do.
This class of "51", we'll all re-mem-ber you!

Class Poem

WE MADE THE GRADE — 1951

Knowledge is a funny thing,
Many headaches it can bring.
We've tried to play the great big game,
Alas, we've gained so little fame.

We thought it would be easy,
But we found it rather "teasy."
Climbing the hill to the top,
Most always kept us on the hop.

And so we made the slow ascent,
'Mid study halls and punishment,
We kept our sliding feet on solid ground,
Lest at the bottom we'd be found.

Algebra and geometry 'twas said,
Would make us use our little head.
Sciences we'd need to know,
They'd help our little brains to grow.

The past we studied in history,
That the future might hold no mystery,
Latin itself would do us much good,
It gave the brain some proper food.

English and all the various classics,
Would help us to understand the magic
Of many things that had gone before,
In the many worlds of folk lore.

And the teachers we adored,
Tried to keep us from being bored.
For twelve years they were our guide,
Filled us with faith, hope, and pride.

They've led us to the top of the hill
And sent us on with much good will,
So with faith and joy in our hearts,
We'll try our best to do our parts.

It is now our turn to say goodbye
As those years of learning, fast did fly,
But we'll always remember Leetonia's Schools,
As the place where we obtained our knowledge tools.

TO OUR YOUNG FRIENDS . . .

Youth faces the ever-changing problems of the years that are before them. The greatest weapon they can possess to meet successfully those problems is a cultured mind, a pure heart, a body physically strong, a desire to work and a determination to practice thrift. Any cause which aims to that end is a most worthy cause and those who labor to accomplish that purpose should receive the commendation of every person who is worthy of citizenship. Keep your face to the sunshine and the shadows will fall behind.

CAUTION—Ever bear in mind education is a foundation for success only when applied with an unselfish spirit of determination to do the worth-while things of life.

To the Class of 1951—In all sincerity we hope you will have the courage to face your problems as you pass along the Highway of Life and happiness and success be always with you.
